Memo

Call the attention of our visitors to the excellent work Regional has been doing on the Home front and to the support she has given the armed forces; at the same time not forgetting that "Life goes on," after wars are ended. Regional is attempting to carry on so that the returning boys will find, intact, what they have been fighting to maintain.

Dedication

Regional has been more than just a school to us; it's the place where we have grown up — the center of our interests, and the home of our friendships.

Many times, when we have been at a loss to find the solution of some problem or have made a mistake which needed to be rectified, it has been wonderful to know that there was a patient, generous, understanding person to whom we could go for advice, help, moral support and sympathy, and know that we would never be turned away.

Because her kindness and friendship have endeared her to us, with a sincere wish for her future happiness, we — the class of '45 — lovingly dedicate this book to our friend, Amelia Tuttle.

TO FACULTY

Supervising Principal

High school is a glorious adventure for all students since it broadens their outlook on life and makes them aware of the opportunities which lie ahead. High school helps one to get as much pleasure, satisfaction and real joy out of life as possible. Students learn about themselves and others as human beings and about the world in which they live. They learn how to live effectively in the present and how to plan intelligently for the future. In high school new perplexities, new surroundings, new conventions, and a wider circle of acquaintances aid in training students to cope with the problems of later life.

An educator of national repute has stated that the public investment in free education can be justified only to the extent that those receiving the benefits of this education will contribute or give back to the public a corresponding return. Both faculty and students at Regional High School have this as one of their objectives.

My congratulations and best wishes to the Class of '45.

In Memoriam

PHYLLIS JOAN BUNNELL

In loving memory we seniors cherish the lasting recollections of our beloved classmate, Phyllis Bunnell, who was taken from us in the middle of our course. Her exceptional talents in music, dramatics, and scholarship; her joy in sports; her capable and vigorous work in homeroom and student council; her enthusiasm, wit, vivacity; her interest in countless school and community activities—these qualities recall in a measure our popular, versatile, talented classmate. Nevertheless, it is for her friendship, her personality, and beautiful character that we cherish most deeply her memory.

In Memoriam

JEAN PRISCILLA SWANSON

For all their importance books, lessons, sciences, arts—all the paraphernalia of school fail to move or influence us as forcibly as does the strength of a glowing human spirit. Such a shining, beautiful personality was our classmate, Jean Swanson. We shall always be affected by the memory of her strength of character, her warmth, her kindly generous spirit.

When anyone had a problem, Jean was always ready to listen to it. The philosophy seemed to be "live for your fellow men," for she certainly lived most unselfishly.

Jean hoped someday to become a journalist. With ease and naturalness she wrote stories, poems, or anything that expressed her feeling.

Much of her outside work was devoted to the church. She was active in the choir, helped organize the nursery school, and took part in all the activities of the church.

With affection we remember her as a truly wonderful girl.

The Prom

You may recall the time when you stayed after school, snatched a few minutes for supper and continued painting on the prom murals; sprawled out on the floor in the hall.

Some 250 feet of 9-foot mural is no easy task but Freshmen, Sophs, Juniors and Seniors alike pitch in each year, working hard to turn the gym into a glamorous setting for the sub-debs at Regional.

The theme this year was "Mexican Fiesta" and with the multi-colored ceiling and lights and the Mexican scenes on the walls we were transported to another world.

The art students do a beautiful job and the rest of the school is grateful to them for it.

The Senior Play

The great dramatic event of the year is presented by the Senior class under the direction of Miss McCarthy.

"Janie," the stage and screen hit, was the popular play that was given this season.

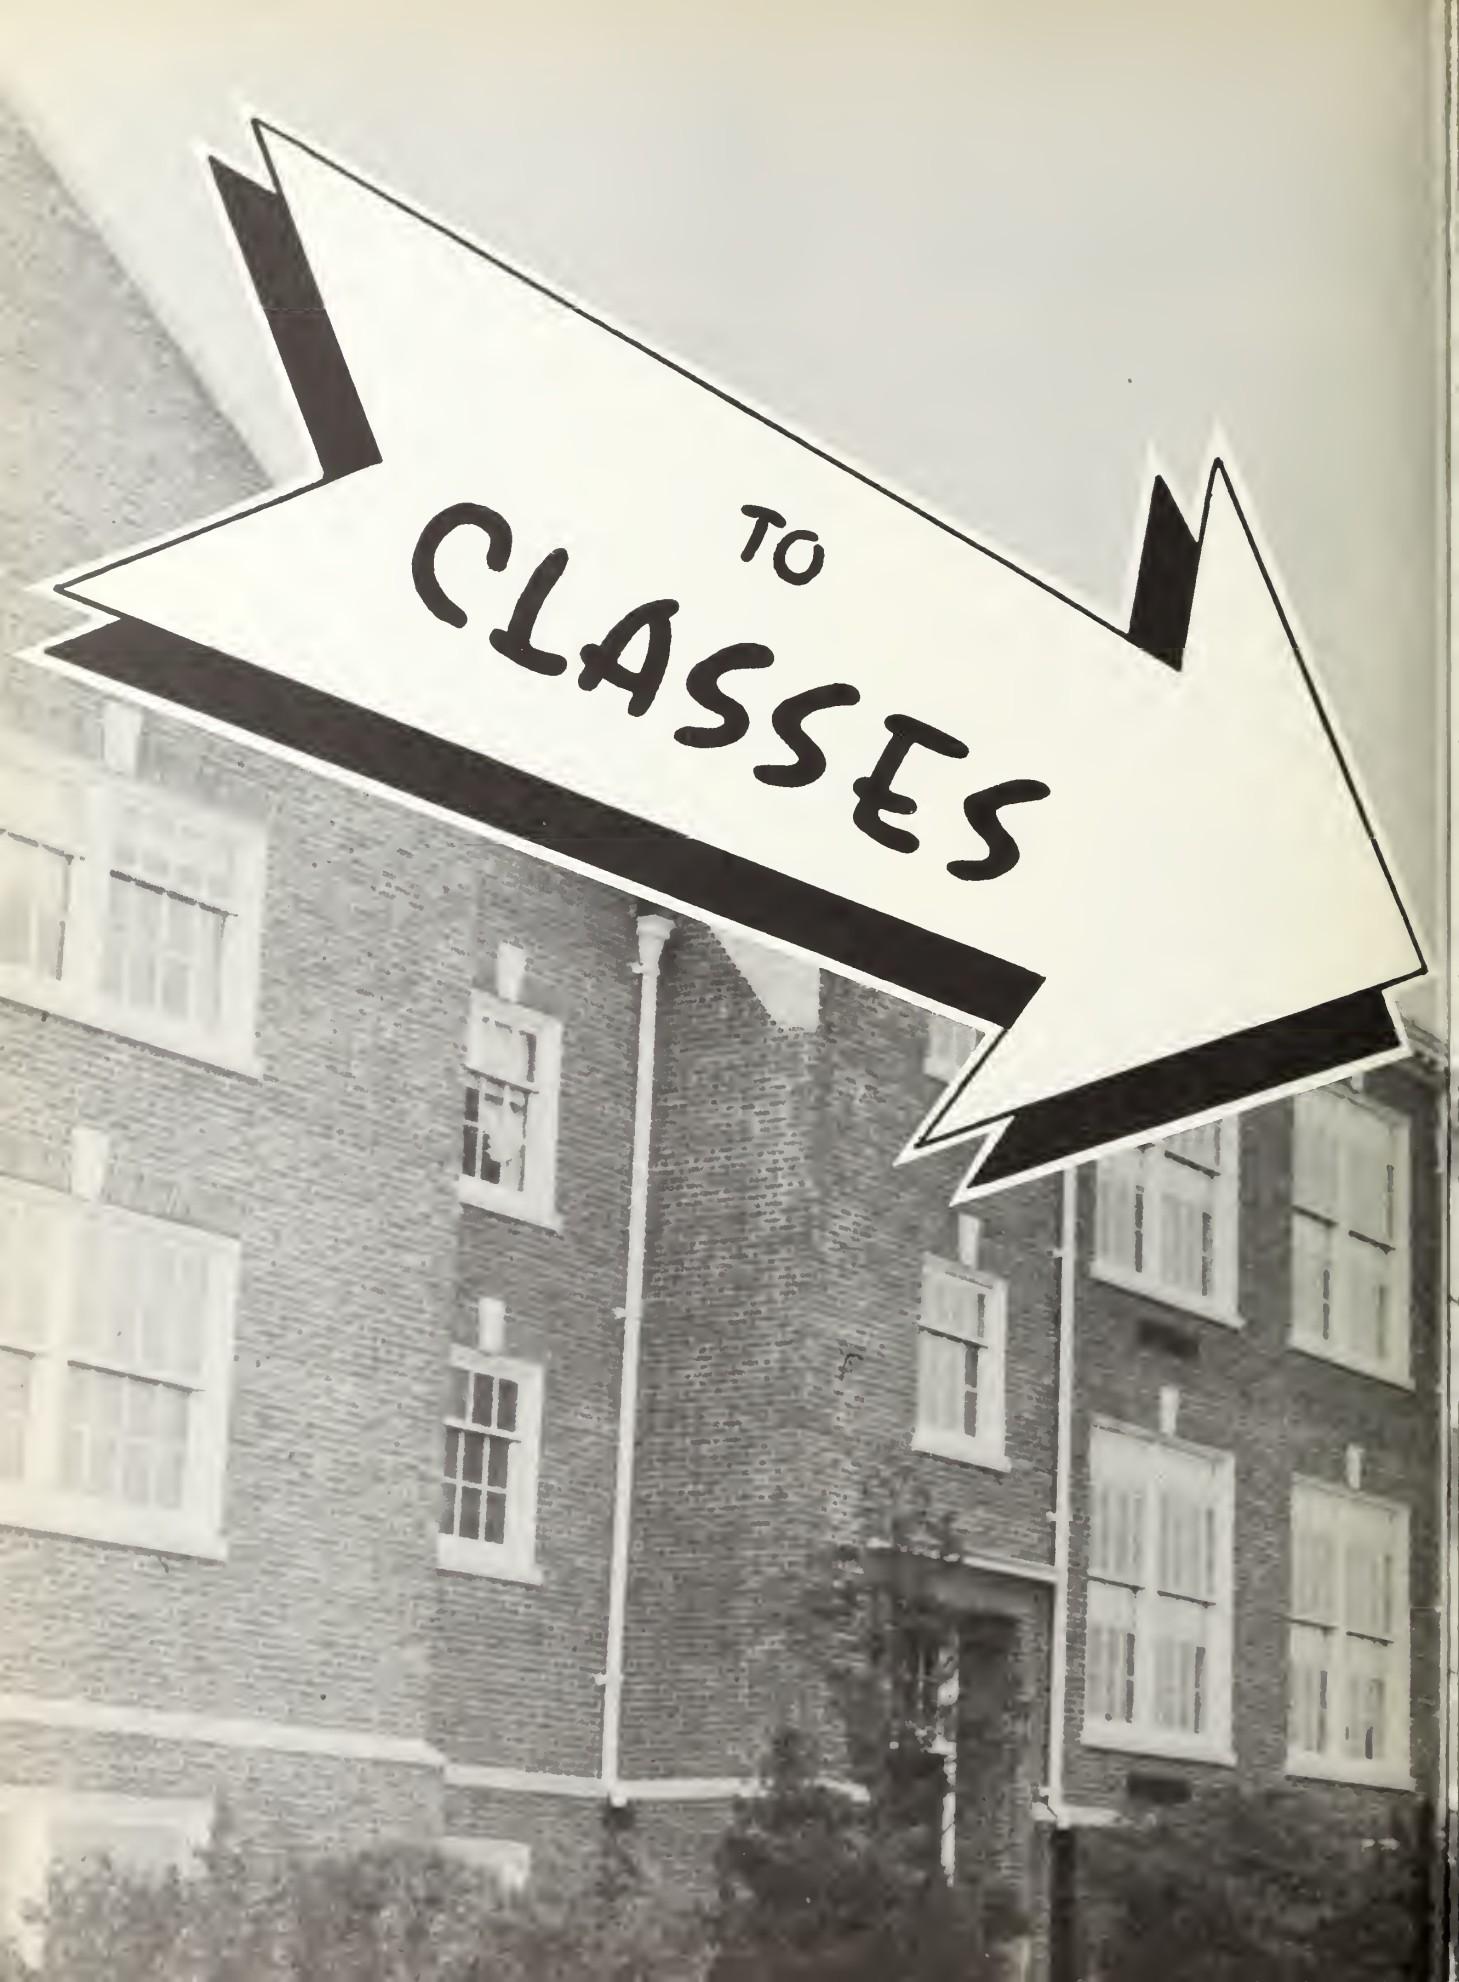

Jane Alexander was a perfect "Janie" and Bob Gilbert and Bernie Treadway did an excellent job with the male leads.

The cast was very well chosen and their performance was worthy of praise.

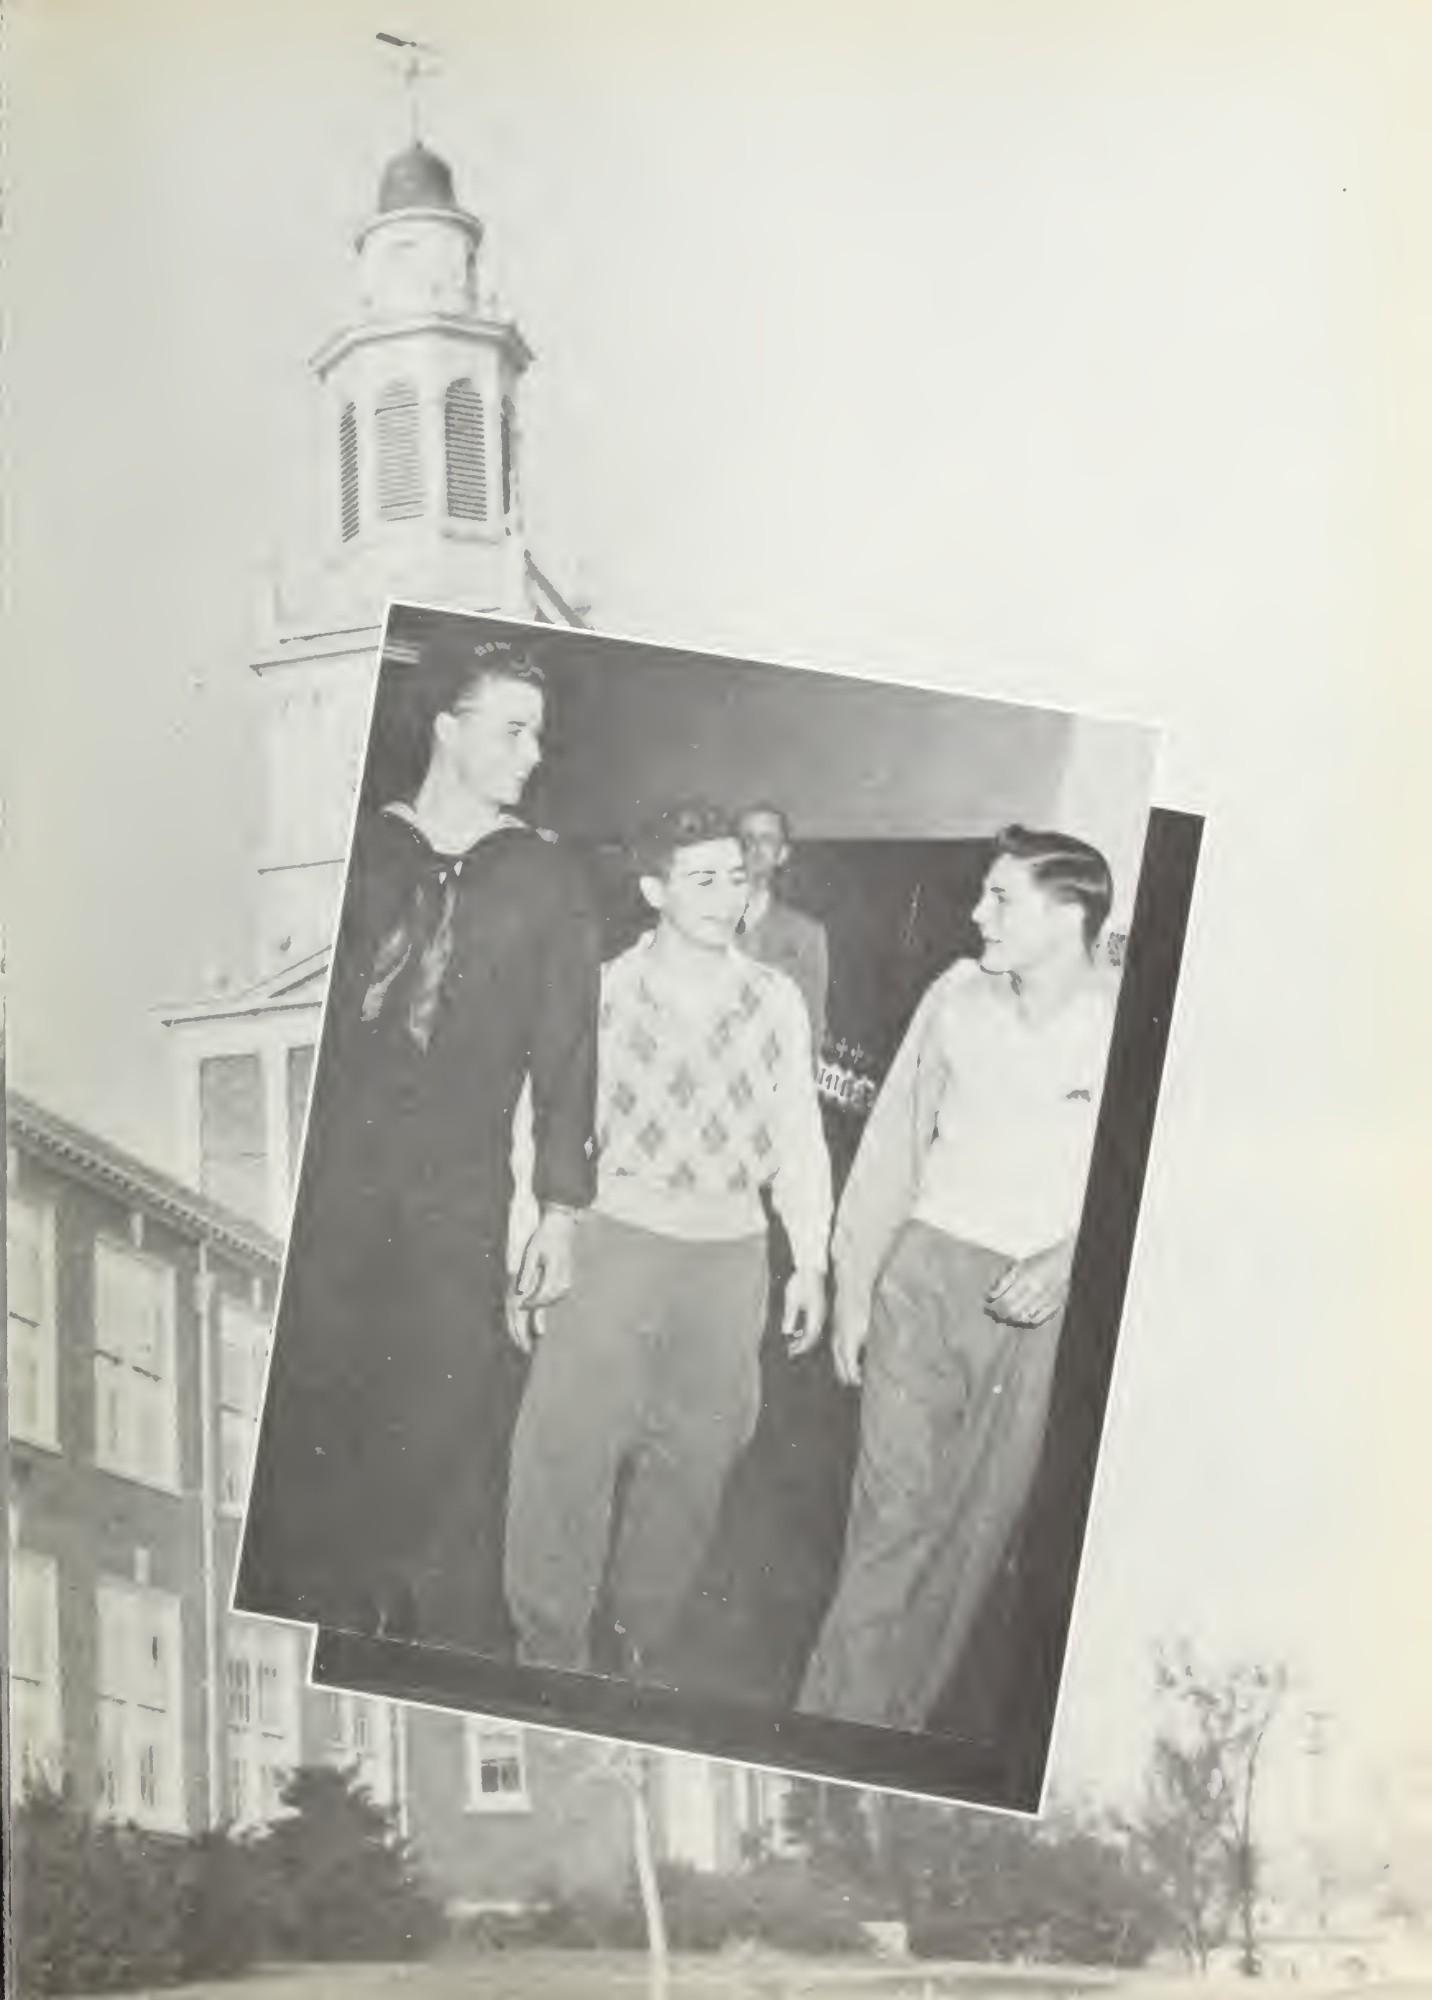

In order to put on a show like this, it is necessary to have a lot of prop men, stage hands, ticket salesmen and make-up artists.

We include the cast, the coach and the production assistants in our tribute to a grand performance.

Dayton News

Remember when the school paper was just an infant and when we had more news than we could possibly crowd into it? Have you seen our new four-column editions? We've been featuring News about all our boys in the armed forces. The students like it, too.

This year our editors are Helen Duguid and Karen Torp, and we think these girls have been doing a fine job.

We've been urging everyone to save their copies of the paper and send them out to the fellows—to sort of remind them that we're still here for them to come back to.

Regionalogue

Our yearbook itself is the loudest voice in praise of the staff of workers who create it. Until you have served in some capacity—sorting pictures—identifying members of clubs—securing ads—making sketches, or various and sundry other things which take time, energy and brains, you cannot know just what a colossal job it is. This year, with the aid of the advisers, an excellent staff has turned out, we sincerely hope, another masterpiece. They present Regionalogue 1945 for your approval.

The Student Council

This year our Student Council is really on the beam. They were behind our successful bond drive which mounted way over the goal of $5000 and reached the sum of $15,140. Super-salesmen! Yes? Our stamp sales have been excellent and if they keep up the good work, we know the P.T.A. membership will be better than ever—and there won't be a student soon without a dues card. One just has to be on his toes to keep a step ahead of this crowd. The two dances they run are always successes, and the money made takes care of that annual scholarship. Even with all the war service activities they never forget that.

Mr. Sterner and Miss Fielding are the never-tiring advisers of this group.

Besides the many constructive things this organization accomplishes, they find time for some of the nice little things that make people feel good. Just the other day we heard one of the teachers, returning after an illness, remark about the thoughtfulness of the Student Council in sending her a card.

We're really quite proud of them.

The Honor Society

Would you like some inside information on the "brains" of Regional?

Our Honor Society really doesn't consist of a bunch of bookworms, as some people seem to think. The members of the group have to earn their right to membership.

How? Scholarship—Yes! But that's not all—they must have character, the ability for leadership, a strong school spirit and must participate in a variety of school activities. We would say, roughly speaking that they should make pretty top-notch citizens. It's not easy to get in this organization but we think it's something worth while trying for.

Well, as you can see by the lot of smiling faces that our hall patrol is still running full force. The halls are exceptionally clear this year. Is it because of the good patrolmen or is it just the man power shortage? Herb Cubberly is our Colonel and is doing a fine job. Much credit is given to all of the thirty-one members who are doing excellent jobs of keeping all the wolves from roaming around seeking "adventure"??

Hall Patrol

The busy little ladies in Miss Leh's Junior Red Cross group have made a lot of soldiers happy this year at both Fort Dix and Camp Kilmer. Were we envious of them when we smelled the delicious aroma of chocolate cookies coming from the kitchens? Some of the girls have really become experts under Miss Leh's careful instruction. Lillian Gradis is one of the stars. She'll make some one a mighty fine—cook.

Music

Come on in to the Music Department, and just browse around with your eyes and ears wide open. We have some basso profundos and some high trillers that would really take you off your feet. Boys' chorus, girls' choir, glee club, ensemble and mixed choir. They're really good, and our band and orchestra we really appreciate either on the football field or in the auditorium. This year we had a new innovation. The department gave a Christmas cantata. Very nice. We could stand some more. And we'll get it too. Musical Festival, in the spring you know.

Health Office

Here—King Soda Bicarb still reigns supreme. Good for aches, pains, bruises, sprains, colds and — but seriously, we surely should be a healthy lot with Mrs. Montgomery, Dr. Morris, Dr. Wasserman, and all the Health Office assistants to take care of us—

Every student is checked every year—we are weighed and have our eyes, teeth and throats examined. Then comes the Patch Test.

The Health Office gets a big play from the athletes. We don't know whether that is because they must be weighed and checked for sports or whether it's because the Health Office assistants are so—attractive.

We have modern equipment for eye and ear tests, we have dental service, tests for tuberculosis, and when our jagged nerves tend to break down our mental processes, we are kindly and carefully soothed back to normal.

Just what more could we ask? What? No soda bicarb?

Agriculture Department

With the vigor of real he-men the fellows in the agriculture department that we're so proud of have tackled their job of speeding war activities. They have donated blood to the Red Cross and have built equipment for canning centers both in Clark Township and in Springfield.

Another nice gesture was the collection of food baskets for the needy in the school area. Work of this sort has always been of major importance.

This fall when we were hit by the hurricane, the boys came through in helping to clear away the fallen trees on school grounds and in other sections of the county. Besides all these activities there have been farmers to help with chicken raising, equipment repair and building—and, well, go out and talk to Mr. Peigelback; he'll tell you all about it.

Junior Red Cross

As far as war activities are concerned, the Red Cross Clubs at Regional have been doing some fine work. Strolling along the hall early on Tuesdays, one might glance into Mr. Bobilin's room and see his club pupils hard at work making canes, ash trays and games for use in the hospitals. Checker boards and chess boards come in mighty handy when someone at a hospital has many hours of leisure time. If you continued your stroll along the hall, you would see Miss Romano's students busily knitting squares for an afghan. Scattered about on the various desks are materials for making utility bags—and various balls of brightly colored wool. In the corner a girl sits pondering over how much money has been collected during the Junior Red Cross drive, which is an important part of raising the needed funds. In Room 211 Miss Crawford's Red Cross workers knit, sew, and work on various things to be used in the hospitals. Miss Leh's girls make all the yummy little "whatsits" which go to Camp Kilmer. There were so many students interested in doing Red Cross work that it was necessary to organize three clubs to accommodate them all. At a time when the nation and the world are torn by war, it is wonderful to see the spirit of these young people. They realize that they have a job to do, and they know that one big way to help is to do Red Cross work. Our day of victory will come just that much sooner because of their efforts. Three cheers for the Junior Red Cross.

Cafeteria

Keep in line! Grab a tray! and help yourself to a part of the 700 bottles of milk, 40 quarts of vegetable soup and 100 potatoes that our students eat at every meal—to say nothing of the salads, vegetables and desserts. We really don't know how Miss Maitland, the Cafeteria Director, manages to feed us at such a small cost. You see the cafeteria is a non-profit affair but still must pay its own way. She is assisted by several ladies of the community and by some students.

Very often, during lunch, the sound of "Happy Birthday" can be heard over the rattling of dishes and the hum of voices. Some group greeting a fellow student. And just as often there is a birthday cake with candles. This is one of our nicest customs. A spirit of friendliness prevails in our modern, well-equipped cafeteria. Yes—we even have an electric potato peeler and a modern change machine.

Movie Operators

Since education in these days is not all studying from books, a great many educational films are shown in practically all types of classes.

Handling a motion picture machine requires quite a little technical knowledge and a sense of responsibility.

Movie Director Cubberley, Beatty and Gilbert are kept busy throughout the year handling film, for the various departments in the school and training other operators.

This year they leave us. We wonder who is going to fit in their shoes.

Stage Hands

We have an assembly every Friday and there are always lots of details to make the programs more effective. Props have to be set up, lights have to be operated, furniture has to be brought from various places. In fact, the crew of stage hands have an all year 'round job without speaking of the extra entertainments such as the Senior Play, the Christmas Cantata, the Spring Concert and P.T.A. programs.

Those who take over responsibilities of this sort find that it requires a lot of time, energy and initiative. As our experienced stage hands graduate, new ones must be trained.

These things sometimes seem like thankless jobs, but what would we do without the fellows who are school spirited enough to see that they are done? Thanks a million!

A black and white photograph of a multi-story brick building with several windows and doors. A large, white, stylized sign is superimposed over the upper portion of the image. The sign features the word "CLUBS" in a bold, rounded font. Above the letter "L", the word "TO" is written in a smaller, more formal font. The sign is accented with thick black outlines and sharp, angular black arrows pointing towards the right side of the text.

Clack, clack, clack go the knitting needles and buzz, buzz, buzz go the machines—turning out Christmas presents and other useful as well as ornamental things. We have three clubs this year for handicraft. With so many of the fellows in service the girls have to find something to keep them busy. I guess that Miss Goodfellow, Miss Weil and Miss Benfer must have to tax their brains to think up things to do. The girls seem to enjoy it.

Military Strategy

It looks as if the U. S. will have quite a few generals when the fellows in Regional's Military Strategy Club get through discussing all the different theatres of war. Do you know anything about military strategy? If not, why not stop in and see Mr. Perlman and his military strategists. I'm sure you would leave with at least aspirations to become a corporal or a sergeant.

Girls' Jr. Air Reserve

It isn't only the boys who have an interest in aviation, our girls in the Junior Air Reserve Club directed by Miss Fielding are also enthusiastic. Although they don't learn how to fly planes, they are learning the fundamental parts and also how to identify them. Probably someday these girls will be joinings the WACS or WAVES and will be able to use their knowledge to help speed victory.

Boys' Jr. Air Reserve

The Air Corps seems to be the first choice of the different branches of service for most boys. Consequently, the qualifications necessary are somewhat difficult. Mr. Papale, in his Junior Air Reserve Club, is teaching the fellows plane identification, the rules of aviation and requirements for student and commercial pilots.

This should help some of them to get what they want when their time comes to serve Uncle Sam.

Code Club

Here the boys are studying the "Morse Code" by listening to recordings made by the Army Signal Corps. The fellows in this club are interested in learning the code fluently, so if they ever enter into the radio world, they will be one jump ahead of the next guy. Not bad huh?

Semaphore Club

Our students intend to be ready for any emergency. If Uncle Sam needs signal corpsmen, they'll be ready. The Semaphore Club is working hard and soon they won't have to talk at all—just wave flags. Miss McCarthy is the one who's sponsoring this group.

Camouflage Club

Under the wonderful supervision of Miss Cole, our Camouflage Club has been introduced to the inner workings of this important art. Their work consists of making landscapes and then disguising them so that the airfields or oil tanks and other objects are invisible from the air.

Seamanship Club

Regional's apprentice seamen are having their hands full learning the elementary principles required, such as semaphore, knot tying, sea-going terms, elementary navigation, identification of ships and many other things. If you would like to learn a little more about seamanship, why not stop in and see Mr. Sterner and his future Navy personnel.

The boys in the service may think we've forgotten all about them, but that isn't true. We have a Service Men's Publicity Club, and we keep up to date with everyone we can. We're interested in where they are, what promotions they've had, and how they are. The club is busy keeping Regional up to date with this information. They really get a kick out of doing it too.

and Art Service Clubs

Do you feel like working? Perhaps we should be a little more explicit. Do you feel like having some fun? Work you will—if you join either one of the Art Clubs—in fact unless you're dependable and an expert you won't be able to get in the Art Service Club. These groups have served the classes, the teachers, the school, and the community. What would our dances, our bond drives, our entertainment be, if we didn't have the help of our artists? They turn out plenty of work but they all love it. Perhaps Miss Johnson's enthusiasm is catching.

First Row, seated: Trudy Lorenz, May Stauss, Shirley Heitkamp, Doris Nielsen. Second Row, seated: Joan Metzger, Laura Morrison, Fred Wolf, Richard Nielsen, Joe Bataille. Chess Club

Do you play chess? The boys in Mr. Hohn's club are on the way to becoming experts. Sometime maybe they'll let you try to beat them at their own game. It's very relaxing and requires a good brain to plan the plays so as to outsmart your opponent.

First Row: Mr. Hohn, Ernie Gonzlic, Bob Curtis, John Gerring, Bernie Buckholtz. Second Row: Charlie Schnieder, Diane Pelton, Alfred Nierenkerken, Valfred Palmer. Third Row: Bill Holland, Lester Grube, Danny Guerriero, Frank Patrick. Fourth Row: Henry Foster, Frank Schutti, Frank Hall, Carl Baber. Fifth Row: Bob Mitchell, Ted Sadowski.

Biology Club

Then as you plunge deeper and deeper into Death Valley — what is that voice you hear? Why "Doc" Cookman of course! He is explaining the eerie nocturnal habits of the owl to his biology club. Style—humorous—brilliant, Mr. Cookman is completely wrapped up in his subject, and his students learn a great deal from him, and are entertained at the same time.

Who doesn't like to sing? At Regional, many of our girls enjoy vocalizing, and on Wednesday we meet in the auditorium and warble just for the enjoyment of it. Sometimes we sing for an assembly program; the P.T.A. is sometimes entertained by our melodic voices. We participated in the Christmas Concert and will take part in the big Spring Festival. We have a lot of fun, and we hope that Regional will always have many girls who like to sing.

Girls Glee Club

Sixth Row: Doris Burnett, Lillian Gradis, Nettie Kaluskel. Seventh Row: Rita Sacco, Anne Grieve, Mary Alice Tote, Betty Gallon.

Those who enjoy music will be found in Miss Stile's Music Club. There are about thirty students in this club who listen to records and talk about the glamour of Frankie as opposed to that of Bing. Listening to symphonic records provides musical education, while hearing swing and jazz affords pleasure. Two girls take charge of the club each week, and provide the means of entertainment.

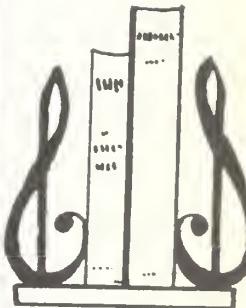

Music Club

What is the big subject in everyone's mind today? What is everyone talking about? War, of course. The boys in Mr. Battaglia's current events club have a big chance to keep up on the news. It is enjoyed very much by all in the club and maybe more of us ought to belong to it.

Current Events Club

One of the reasons our library runs so very smoothly is because of our Library Council which consists of seven members. Each girl has two periods a week for library duty. Besides desk duty, that is, charging books and checking them in, there is plenty of work keeping everything in tip-top shape. Take a look around and you can see how well Miss Dimmers has trained them.

Language Clubs

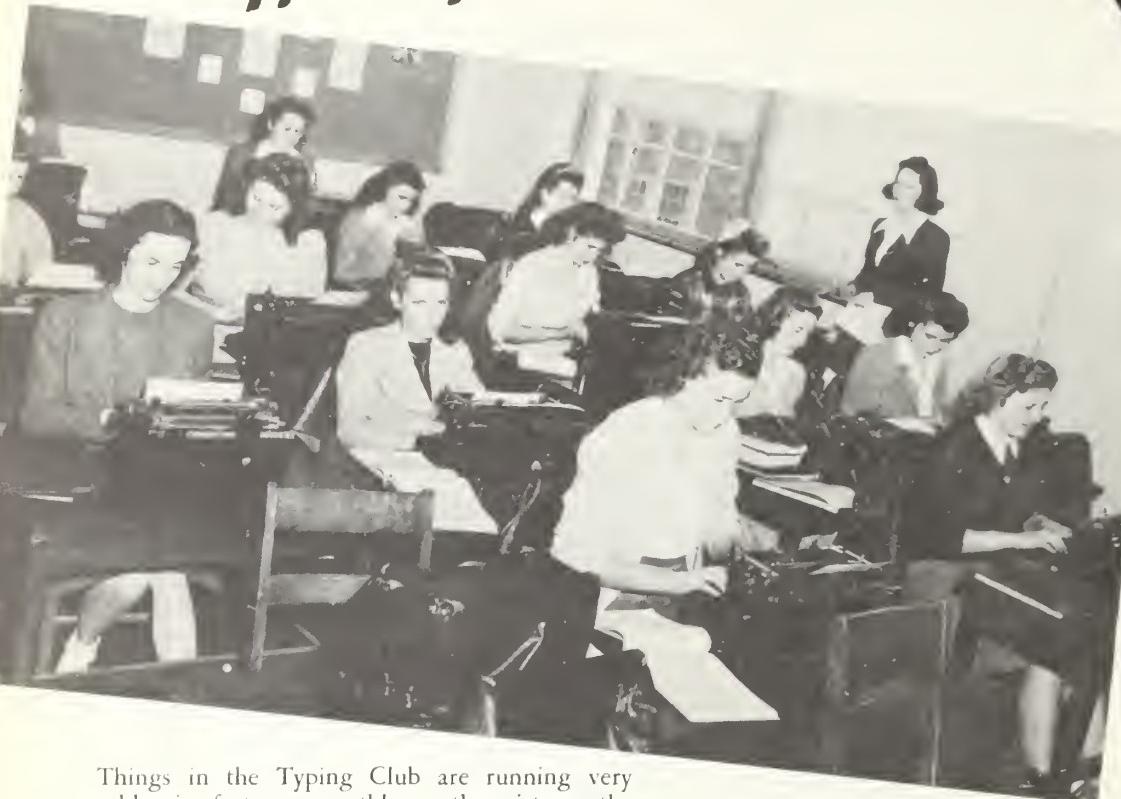

"Noel, Noel," "Adeste Fidelus," and "Noche De Paz" resounds through our halls at Christmas time. The language clubs were caroling us each in the language of their choice.

"Ma chere amie" says a young French aviator to one of our expert linguists. Of course she has been writing to him in French—it's quite thrilling as well as educational. Some of our Latin-American neighbors have heard of Regional also. We do get around!!! The Latin Club takes things a little more seriously 'cause most of its members are going to be Cadet Nurses, and they will really make a good use of what they learn.

Typing Club

Things in the Typing Club are running very smoothly, in fact as smoothly as the pictures the members made on the typewriter. Some are in this club to catch up on their speed while others are there just for the fun of typing.

Drivers Club

We have something new!!!! There is a Drivers' Club which has proven itself quite successful. It is directed by Miss Mather and enrollment has been pretty good. Since most people have cars, she teaches them the fundamental steps in driving and explains the car as a whole. Nearly everyone drives now so they might as well learn the right way at the start.

Third row: Betsy Niebuhr, Marion Buhler, Anneliesse Burger, Arrie Nelvin, Florence Pawlikowski, Marie Anadeo.

Is it permissible to take your shoes off in the movies? Is it proper to make noise when eating soup? Do high school students really ask these questions? You bet they do!! Miss Cowie and Miss Bidgood sure do have their troubles in answering these questions. We are waiting anxiously for the results.

A group of peppy looking girls, a few of our well known cheerleaders and Miss Lubeck make up our Cheerleaders Club. The girls are there to work hard in learning all of our school cheers. They are the candidates for next year's try-outs because the majority of our cheerleaders will graduate this year. They work well and should be able to fill the bill.

Boy's Glee Club

Another of Regional's music groups is the male chorus. It is composed of thirty-five boys, who enjoy singing many modern male chorus arrangements. These boys took part in our Christmas Cantata, and have participated in our Spring Concert. We occasionally have a treat when the fellows sing for us at an assembly.

Business Girls Club

The thirty girls who belong to this club combine pleasure with business. They have typing contests; giving the girls added incentive to do their best work. Plays about the correct attitude in business relations help the girls to know what is done and what is not done in the business world. I'm sure they will make successful business women.

As you glance through this yearbook, you could never guess the amount of time and work it has taken to bring you this book. The Regionalogue Club has charge of this work. Setting the photographs, making decisions in pictures and rosters, writing articles and making the dedication. This work is not considered easy by anyone involved. Nevertheless, when a good book is turned out and we can win both The National and Columbia Scholastic Press Association first prizes, there's some degree of satisfaction, too!

Teachers Association

The Teachers' Association at Regional is not altogether a professional organization, which supports school legislation and keeps up with the new trends in education, but is also a social group. Several times a year they gather together informally at teas, sports and picnics—where everyone has an opportunity to know his colleagues better. We think this is a grand idea because when a faculty is congenial everything seems to run more smoothly. This year Mr. Battaglia is the organization's able president and assisting him are Miss Crawford, vice-president; Miss Cowie, secretary; Mr. Campbell by election and Mr. Lewis by appointment, treasurer; and Miss Johnson, entertainment chairman and Union County Teachers' Association delegate.

Whenever Regional needs any printing done, all they have to do is get in touch with Mr. Hough and then in a little while the machinery in the print shop begins to hum. When the printers have no jobs to work on there is always type to be sorted and many other things to be straightened up. If you want to see how a print shop is run why not stop in and watch the fellows at work some time?

THEME

Students Today - Citizens Tomorrow

The most loyal supporters we have are our parents, which has been proven to us often through the activities of the Parent-Teacher Association here at Regional.

Furthering health supervision, providing student aid, establishing a scholarship fund are only a few of the things they have done.

The student body really appreciate the wonderful interest they have shown in the school.

Booster Club

Keenly aware of the importance of athletics as a factor in boosting morale and developing school spirit, some of our parents went about setting us a fine example when this school was new. Moral support, encouragement, cooperation and backing have taken on a new meaning for us, through their efforts.

We could never fully express our appreciation and gratitude for things they have done for us; furnishing transportation, presenting us with awards and giving us our annual football banquet.

The Booster Club is just another one of the assets that make Regional such a grand place.

Football

How's football? Well! we beat Rahway, yes, Regional licked Rahway to the tune of 6-0.

Though we were hampered with injuries at the beginning of the season, the boys showed the scrappiness and spirit necessary for a good football team.

The first game with Summit was a nip and-tuck battle with Regional at the tail end of a 6-0.

In the second game, a powerful Cranford eleven managed to squeeze out a second 6-0.

But the Regional gridmen fell into stride in the third game by downing Somerville 7-0.

In the following games the "Orange and Blue" lost to Caldwell 6-0 and defeated Union 14-13. Hanzel's conversion in the Union game clinched the victory, and the following Saturday we only managed to get a 6-6 with Roselle.

The seventh game saw Roxbury down Regional 20-19 with the Bulldogs making 19 points in the final quarter.

In the next to last game we saw Harrison plowed under to the tune of 35-0. They were an out-classed, but a fighting team.

On Thanksgiving Day we defeated Rahway for the first time in Regional's history. Our squad played like veterans in back of their powerful line.

With the excellent support of the student body, Boosters Club, and cheerleaders our team was led to many victories.

Our all-state men were Ginesi, Aldrich and Neierenkerken. It's not hard to see why we're proud of our 1944 football team.

Basketball

Our basketball team this year? Well, it has been slightly, what you might call, unpredictable.

You see, we beat the teams we were worried about and the teams that feared us usually won against us.

The main trouble has been the fact that most of the team this year was made up of fellows who had no experience in basketball and the whole team is in the process of rebuilding.

The fellows have a lot of spirit even though they have had a tough schedule. Since quite a few members of the team are Sophomores, Freshmen, and Juniors, next year we ought to be able to repeat the victories that in previous years made Regional "county champs."

Wrestling

Regional's grapplers are ending their season this year with three wins and five losses. Never was a match lost without a hard fight. In the two hottest matches of the season the boys lost by a single point to Blair Academy and won by a single point over Admiral Farragut. The fellows were shut out forty to zero by an exceptionally fine Newton squad. Washington also took our measure, winning a 31 to 9 match. We beat Thomas Jefferson of Elizabeth decisively by 25 to 10. Losing to Roselle Park 38 to 6 and to Teaneck in a hot contest by 18 to 28 the musclemen took Union's measure with ease, winning all but a match.

Two boys undefeated throughout the season in their respective weights are Charles Calderaio and Pat Scorese. Both are expected to do well in the State contests.

The team got off to a tough start losing two prominent boys, namely Dave McCarthey and Harry Keehn, due to illness. Late in the season Joe Hoke was unable to continue because of a dislocated shoulder.

Under the able guidance of Coach Joe Battaglia the team has made a good name for the school in that they showed nothing but good fighting spirit and sound sportsmanship in all their meets.

Track

This year's track team didn't do so badly. We won our first meet since 1942, when we beat Rahway.

Bruce Davis was our star and he collected a total of 149 points in the dashes, the pole vault, the broad jump, and the high jump.

Harry Nussbaum got a total of 98 points in the dashes, the javelin, and the broad jump. George Conley collected 31 points in the high and low hurdles. Remember Don Simms? He did very well in the high hurdles and the pole vault. In the distances we had Al Nierenkerken, Harvey Schramm, Bob Mitchell and Steve Terrel. Tom Gibson and Bugs Thorpe were our weightmen and John Forgino was our manager. He had a leg injury and couldn't run.

Tennis

Our tennis team played a few outside matches and some intramurals. The boys who are interested in this are trying to increase the popularity of this game. This year they played more matches than lost and the general interest of the students seems to be increasing.

Golf

Our golf team, Ed Hanelka, Carmine Petrozelli, Ed Brittain, Fred Edwards and Pete Genesi did very well this season. Out of ten matches played with West Orange, Westfield, Scotch Plains, Union, and Cranford, they only lost one. We're sorry to be losing most of these fellows and hope some of the underclassmen will step up to fill their shoes.

Softball

The girls are just as much baseball enthusiasts as the boys—and we might almost add just as expert. Captains appointed by Coach Lubeck select their own teams. Picking a winning team is quite a job. Because the girls are chosen for their ability and not because of their membership in a class—the rivalry between teams is only a temporary one. Softball is one of the favorite pastimes when nice weather permits.

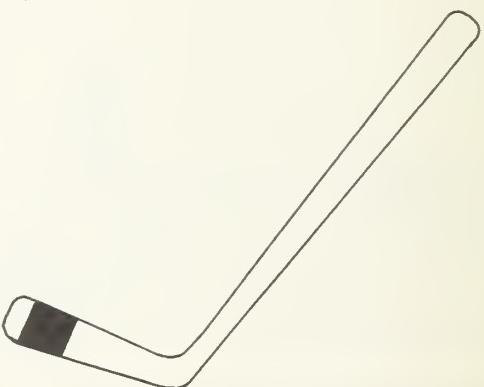

Softball

Here at Regional we have never had baseball as a sport although there has been some agitation among the students regarding it. Softball, we play and the captains who are appointed by the coach may select their own teams from among the best players for the intramural games. The games are played more for the sheer sport of it than with any idea of keen competition.

Field Hockey

At the state tournament one of our girls, Ethel Costello, was selected for the all-state first team. And were we proud! This is the first year that any of the girls have played field hockey. We lost our only game to Union but we held our heads high when Ethel came through for us at the state tournament. The girls are enthusiastic about the game and next year they plan for a larger schedule of games and some real playing. We're looking forward to a successful season.

Archery

About twenty girls who have their own equipment were interested in archery this year. The school furnished the target for practice. Of the group, the best scorers were chosen to make up a team, with Kay Titley in charge.

Beside intramural matches, they competed against Madison and Plainfield.

This is really a free sport and we hope it will become more popular.

Left to right: Kay Titley, Muriel McDowell, Virginia Schramm, Betty Jane Knauss, Ruth Titley, Shirley Jeakens.

Girls A.A.

The girls are organized for the purpose of promoting a good wholesome program of athletics and financing the purchase of the letters and awards.

The officers this year were Ruth Titley, president; Shirley Heetkamp, vice-president; and Kay Corby, secretary and treasurer.

A manager was elected for each athletic activity:

Hockey	Jean Keeth
Basketball	Anne Philippa
Swimming	Muriel McDowell
Archery	Kay Corby
Baseball	Irene Vicendese
Modern Dance	Peggy Sarge

This organization has proved itself to be very efficient and we think the girls have profited by it.

Basketball

Basketball, I guess, is about the most popular of the girls' sports. There were three teams organized in each class—intramural games were played and the Junior and Senior teams played outside games with Madison, Chatham, Union, Hillside and Scotch Plains. The Senior teams were unlucky but the Juniors were undefeated in both intramural and outside games. That looks promising for next year.

Modern Dancing

The modern interpretive dance group was an innovation this year. The girls, under the leadership of Peggy Sorge, aided with the coaching of Miss Lubeck enjoyed creating their own steps and rhythms. This sort of dancing develops sense of rhythm, balance and grace of motion. Not a bad innovation, we think!

Kay Titley, B. J. Krauss, Ruth Titley, Anne Philippa, Helen Smith, Bette Ficke.

Social Dancing

The social dancing group has really progressed this year. Due to the cajoling and threatening of both Coaches Lubeck and Borelot, a great number of the bashful wallflowers have gradually come down off their perches in the bleachers and have managed to find a partner who will struggle along with them.

Dancing is a social accomplishment and the students realize that they have an opportunity given them here in our modern school. They really should make the most of it.

Swimming

The interest in swimming and life saving was very great among the girls. About seventy-five girls turned out for the Thursday afternoon class at the Westfield Y.M.C.A. It was necessary to reduce the size of the group which was cut to thirty-five.

While life saving was their chief work they still found time to run a few meets against Plainfield, Westfield and Summit.

Kay and Ruth Titley, Anne Philippa and Doris Costello were the star swimmers. They all had a lot of fun as well as some useful experience.

Cheerleaders

Our Cheerleaders are a fine hard-working bunch. When we see them out in front of the bleachers; peppy, coordinated, making such a fine showing, we need to think back to the hours of grilling practice that has put them in shape.

They certainly were an inspiration to the teams this year and the school responded well to their excellent leadership.

From our Cheerleaders Club will come another group next year that we know are going to carry on the excellent job done by this year's Cheerleading squad.

First row: Ruthe Steinemann, Margaret Palmer, Helen Gunser.
Second row: Genevieve Cierniecki, Peggy Kelly, Kay Titley.
Third row: Eileen Becmer, Shirley Heitkamp, Lois Spankowitz.
Fourth Row: Virginia Kroehling, Rosemary Chattin, Jane Alexander.

Trophies

In our eight years at Regional the collection of athletic trophies won by our athletes has steadily grown.

We have excelled at one time or another in basketball, track, wrestling and golf. Many individual prizes have also been taken in the various interscholastic meets.

The trophy case is rapidly filling up and we feel that, since we are a comparatively new school, we have a lot to be proud of.

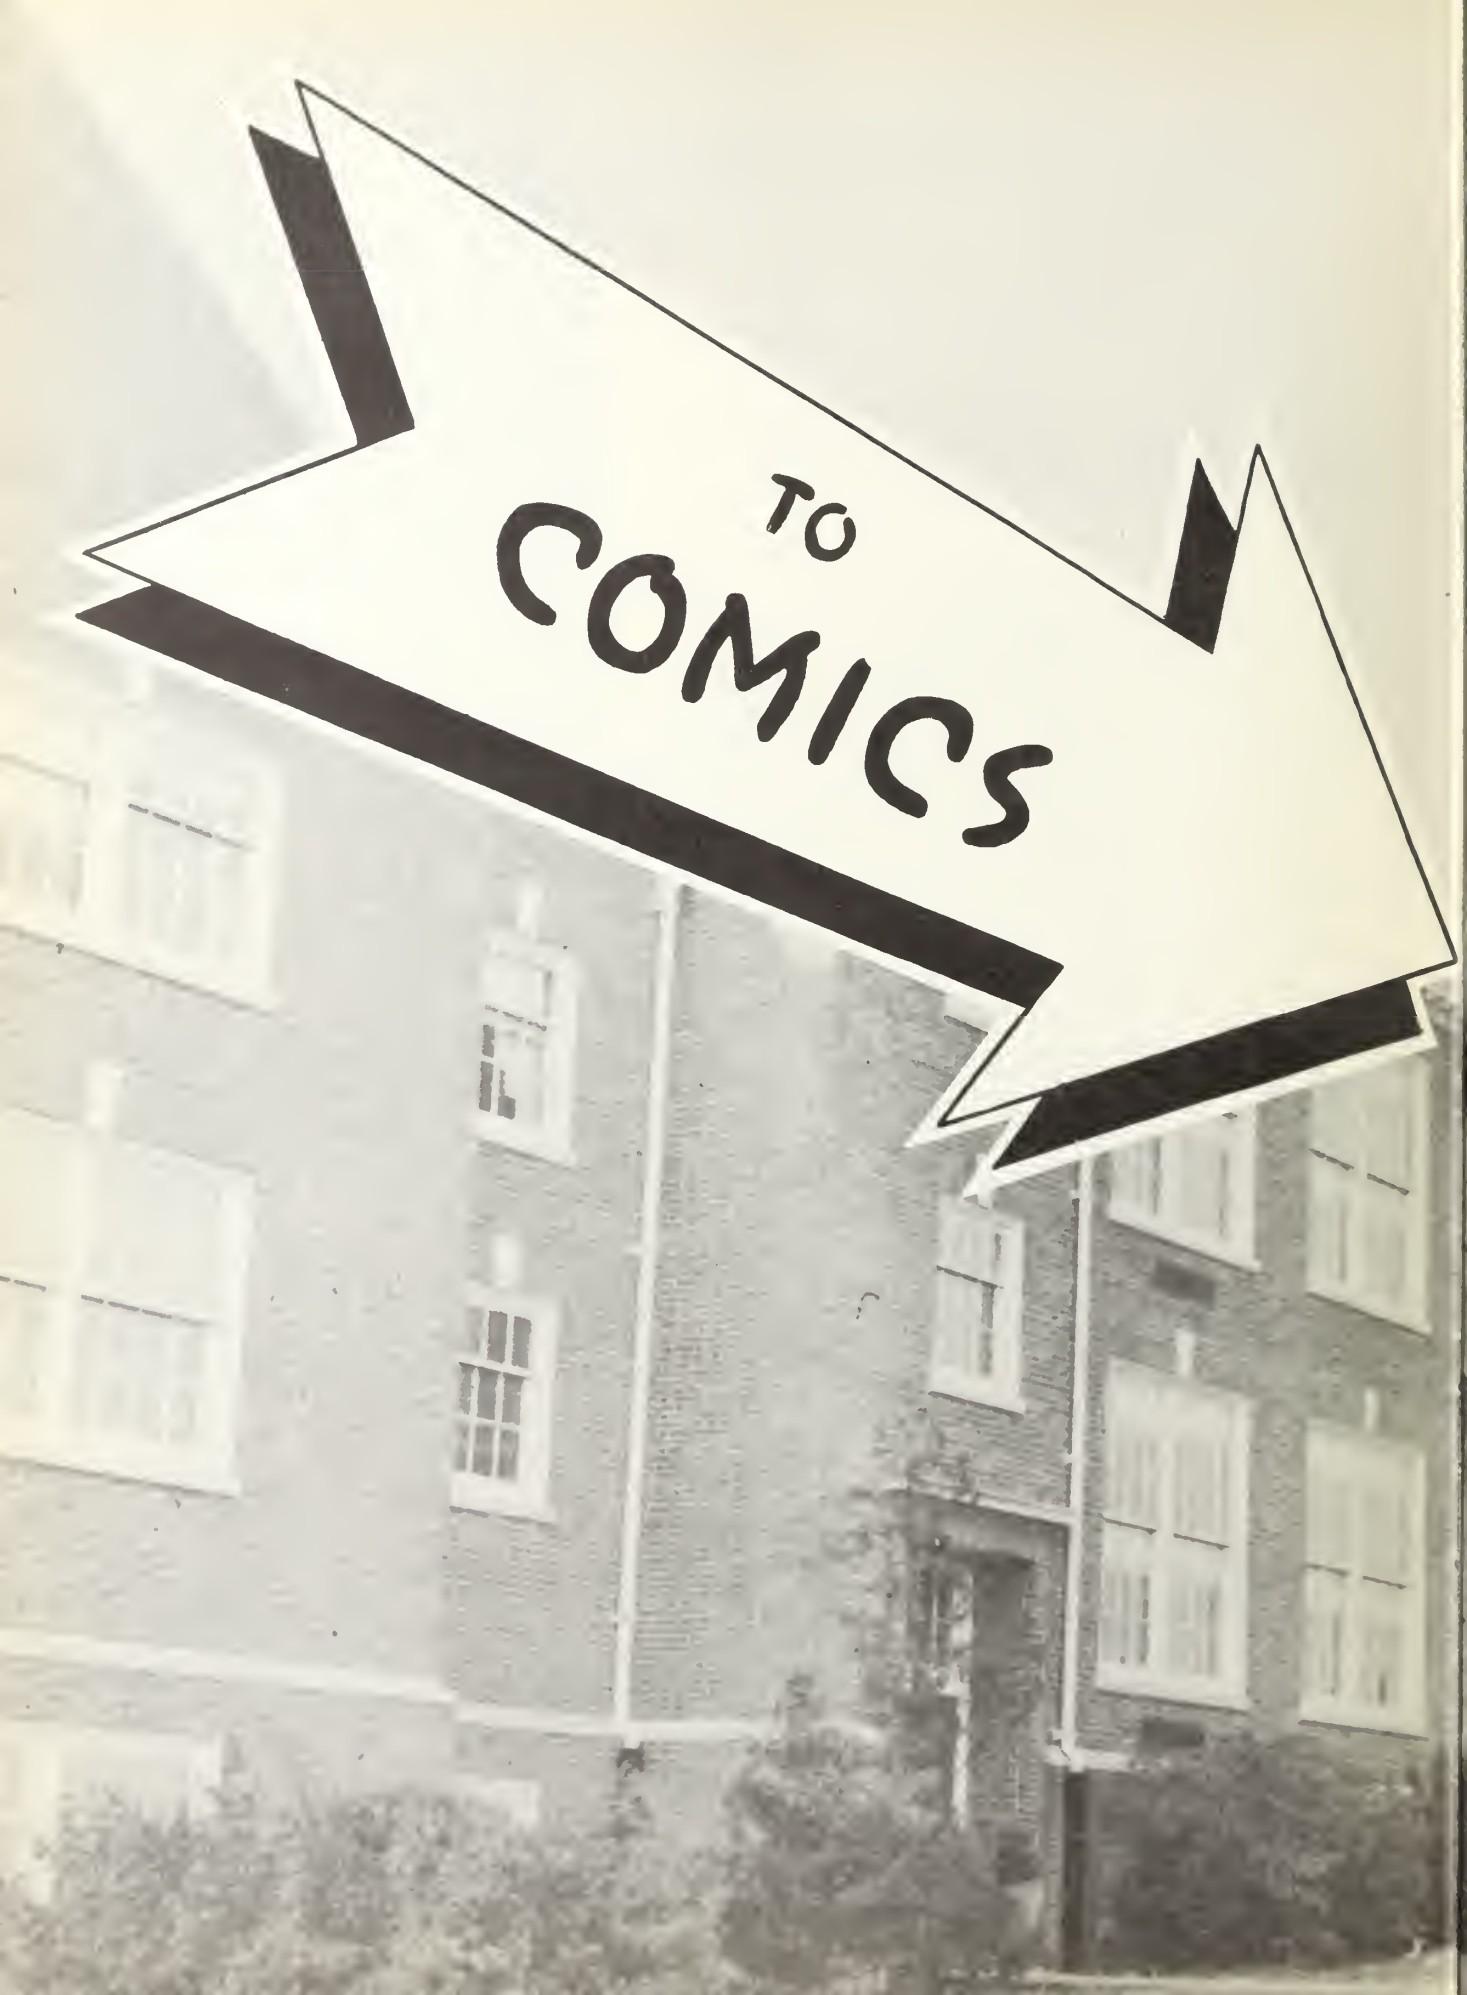

Cross Country

This year we did fairly well with our Cross Country meets. Harvey Schramm was the captain, and he was the star of the team. While running against Irvington, Harvey broke their record. Incidentally, we beat them. We had a very good schedule, entering in the State and Union County Park Championship meets and taking fourth place in the Union County Park meet, competing against five other schools.

We would have taken four places in the State if we had had another man, but we only had four. Schramm ran sixth; Alley, thirty-seventh; Dahlgren, forty-second; and Terrel, seventy-second. Schramm received a medal for coming in sixth. Next year's Cross Country team looks pretty promising. There is only one man leaving. The lettermen are: Schramm, Alley, Dahlgren, Ford, Terrel, Sadowski, Dawling and Bonnet, Manager.

Prophecies

La Morrison groaned and bemoaned her fate,
She went on a diet to lose some weight.
She lost and lost at an awful rate,
Now the human skeleton's her only date.

Karwoski's ambition was to be
A yodeling cowgirl wild and free.
Now she's down in North Caroline,
Hog callin's how she spends her time.

Genesi put Casanova to shame,
He was never seen without a dame.
But Genesi couldn't make up his mind,
A lonely bachelor now you'll find.

Helen was a noisy lass,
But miracles sometimes come to pass,
To believe reports seems almost too good,
She now is known as "Silent Duguid."

Mueller was an expert at chewing gum,
She made those masticators hum,
She chewed at work and on a date,
But lockjaw was the lady's fate.

Sadowski has brains and personality, too,
Friend of the boys, and the gals he did woo.
We always thought he would easily succeed,
Now cattle and chickens he does feed.

Join the Navy was their ideal,
Schmidt, Pinkava, and O'Neill,
If a peek at their hands you steal,
You'll see the scars from potatoes they peel.

The girls George Abram could not resist,
A girl, I'm sure he's never missed,
A "Romeo" we all felt sure,
Now exists on the Alcatraz shore.

Popular and cute was Spankowitz,
The guys at Regional, she did blitz,
Her Grable legs have grown too thin,
You ought to see the shape they're in.

Quick with the corn and very alive,
Jeanne Allen was witty and hep to the jive.
Now she has nothing to break the monotony,
She lectures on tombstones, biology, and botany.

Hockey, swimming, and basketball,
The Costello twins were tops in all.
Across the floor, they used to streak,
But now they walk with limbs that creak.

Ed Foster in the halls always did swoon,
When he heard the strains of a certain tune.
But after he married a great shock he received,
For the girl he married couldn't sing "I'm Making Believe."

With soldiers and sailors Crozier did spoon,
'Neath the light of the silvery moon.
With one she knew a romance would start,
But alas! alack! A civilian has captured her heart.

Makeup, glamour, and quite tall,
Scosky thought she had them all.
Now she's gotten big and fat,
A spinster now with just her cat.

Most likely to succeed,
Jean Cosgrove was indeed.
Now she's in a department store,
Selling shoe laces by the score.

Muscles Wodtke had his fame,
In every Regional football game.
He's still a great big muscle man,
He dumps the garbage out of the can.

Accurate baskets Detrick could toss,
The game to Regional was seldom a loss.
With his arm he lost no luck,
He throws the cans to Wodtke on the truck.

Lee Johnson loved the Navy's blue,
Marry a sailor was what she would do.
One day she met one and married by chance,
Now all her children have bell-bottomed pants.

A wit and goon and versatile,
Ambition to make you laugh the while
Picking pockets without a rod,
Along Fifth Avenue is Roger Todd.

Virginia Kroehling, who likes to sing,
Figured she'd be a female Bing.
But opportunity shuts its doors,
And now she's busy scrubbing floors.

Marguerite Faede was a gal,
A friend of all and a real pal.
Bette Davis she undertook,
Old maid now, with crochet hook.

Steineman knew the cheers inside out,
She taught all the freshmen how to shout.
But now she prays for peace and quiet,
When her eight youngsters begin a riot.

Jane Alexander was on the ball,
With friendliness, acting, voice, and all.
When she was made a chambermaid,
She found out this was to be her trade.

Vogue was Chattin's real ideal,
To pose for pictures with sex appeal.
Now on Post Office billboards, you may see,
Just what this Miss turned out to be.

- 1 Big winds blow in . . .
2 Regional's biggest disappointment—lost state tournament to Hillside by one basket—"Our tears flowed like wine."
3 State wrestling tournament—Scorse and Calderado come in second. Can't win all the time!
9 Freshmen show Regional their hidden talents. St. Patrick's Day Dance. O'Pearlman in his glory.
10 First Saturday rehearsal for "Janie"—g-r-r-r and I thought
I could sleep.
17 Girls and fellows have greenish tint, Lads and Lassies for a day.
19 P.T.A. sales show slight improvement.
21 Grammar schools honored by dress rehearsal of "Janie"— good, too!
23 Seniors present "Janie."
24 Held over for another night—Hollywood begs us for "Janie" cast.
25 Profits counted, seniors make enough money on "Janie"
to retire.
29 Regionalites on parole (vacation) for ten glorious days.
Easter around the corner.

APRIL

- 1 Can't wait to get back to school (April Fool!)
9 First day back, Health Office overcrowded—Monty sends out for more bi-carb.
19-20 Everybody enjoys a higher class of music presented by Regional's music students.

MAY

- 4 Beauty surrounds us in a gala festivity at the May Pole dance. The girls were never like this.
7 Sales of the P.T.A. have not reached their peak.
10 Practice for Senior Commencement start. Senior classes empty.
21 Girls shed sweaters.
25 Junior Prom goes over big.
Exams over—Seniors store brains in moth balls, once again.
Underclassmen still sweat. Everyone turns out.
26 Recuperating—o-w-w my head—clean-up Saturday morning after Prom proved stiff competition for Mr. Frey.
28 Seniors still missing from classes — oh Commencement practice.
30 For a change a single holiday is celebrated.

JUNE

- 1 Kids beginning to breathe easy—Commencement a week
away.
5 Campus crowded with relaxed eager beavers.
8 This is the day of thrills and tears
As we review our passing years
Thrills for what we've yet to find
Tears for what we leave behind.

FINE YEARBOOKS

. . . A TRADITION . . .

Webster says — "Tradition is the delivery of opinions, doctrines, practices and customs from ancestors to posterity . . ."

The ability to produce outstanding Annuals has been a tradition in the "Progress Family" for the past thirty years. Our growth has not been a mushroom one, but a steady, conservative building process, designed to give you better and finer books. All of the Progress personnel are at your service, with layouts and designs, personal contacts, cover ideas, and helpful editing hints.

May we suggest that when you think of a Class Book, think of . . .
